

Federal Student Financial Aid Penalties for Drug Law Violations

Marian University is required to remind students who receive federal financial aid that the Higher Education Act includes a student eligibility provision related to drug possession and