REPORT

The Clery Act requires universities and colleges to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. This act requires higher education institutions to give timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of students or employees and to make public their campus security policies. It also requires that crime data is collected, reported, and disseminated to the unfounded and subsequently withheld from their crime statistics;

- Provide information on culturally relevant, inclusive prevention awareness programs to incoming students and new employees, as well as describe these programs in their ASRs. These programs must include: a statement that the institution prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking; the definitions of these terms in the applicable jurisdiction; the definition of consent, in reference to sexual activity, in the applicable jurisdiction; a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention; information on risk reduction; and information on the institution's policies and procedures after a sex offense occurs;
- Provide, and describe in their ASRs, ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for students and employees. These campaigns must include the same information as the institution's primary prevention and awareness program
- Define the terms awareness programs, bystander intervention, ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns, primary prevention programs, and risk reduction ;
- Describe each type of disciplinary proceeding used by the institution in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; the steps, anticipated timelines, and decisionmaking process for each type of disciplinary proceeding; how to file a disciplinary complaint; how the institution determines which type of proceeding to use based on the circumstances of an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; and the standard of evidence that will be used in the disciplinary proceeding;
- List all of the possible sanctions that the institution may impose following the results of any institutional disciplinary proceedings for an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- Describe the range of protective measures that the institution may offer following an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- Provide students or employees who report being victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking with a written explanation of their rights and options, regardless of whether the offense occurred on campus, including written notification of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available for victims both within the institution and in the community, and availability of changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations, or protective measures regardless of whether the victim reports to law enforcement;
- Provide a prompt, fair, and impartial disciplinary proceeding in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking in which: (1) officials are appropriately trained and do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the complainant or the respondent; (2) the complainant and the respondent have equal opportunities to have others present, including an advisor of their choice; (3) the complainant and the respondent receive simultaneous notification, in writing, of the result of the proceeding and any available appeal procedures; (4) the proceeding is completed in a reasonably prompt time frame; (5) the complainant and respondent are given timely notice of meetings which one or the other or both may be present; and (6) the complainant, the respondent, and appropriate officials are given timely and equal access to information that will be used during informal and formal disciplinary meetings and hearings

Emergency notifications, timely warning notices, and follow-up information will be made available via: Marian University email, Marian University's campus safety app Campus Shield, Marian University residence life staff, and/or Marian University building coordinators. Marian University may not issue a timely warning based on the same circumstances; however, Marian University will provide adequate follow-up information to the community as needed. Marian University tests the emergency notification and evacuation procedure at least once per calendar year. This test may be announced or unannounced and publishes Marian University's emergency response and evacuation procedures during the test.

4. Adverse behavior as a result of alcohol consumption, including disruption, disorderly conduct, and public intoxication shall be a violation of the code.
5. The sale of alcoholic beverages by any person without a license is strictly prohibited.
6. Students hosting parties where (a) minors are allowed to consume alcohol, (b) alcohol is provided to minors, (c) provided in excess to others, or (d) otherwise distributed in violation of the law are subject to sanctions outlined in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities up to and including suspension or expulsion from the university.
7. Drinking games and other behaviors designed for the purpose of rapid and/or excessive consumption of alcohol are prohibited.
8. Bulk alcohol containers (kegs and other bulk containers, etc.) are prohibited.

B. Residential Units

1. With respect to the service, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages on the Marian University campus, state statutes and city ordinances will be enforced in addition to the following regulations: residents who are of legal age to possess or consume alcoholic beverages, who reside in university-operated employee apartments/houses or university apartment/house units, and their guests of legal age may possess and consume such alcoholic beverages in the privacy of their residences.
2. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from all substance-free living environments, regardless of a student's age. This includes but is not limited to Doyle Hall, Wayne Hall, Clare Hall, and the Dorothy Day House for Peace and Justice.
3. Consumption and possession of alcohol may be permitted in some residence halls (Drew Hall and University Hall) where residents and their guests are of legal age to possess or consume alcoholic beverages. Such use of alcoholic beverages will not be permitted in the public lounges, study lounges, recreation areas, dining rooms, or any area other than the private student rooms.
4. In bonding situations in Drew Hall and University Hall where one resident is over the age of 21 and the other resident is not yet 21 years of age, possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. This applies to student guests in addition to residents.
5. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited in all public areas of the residence halls. All areas in a residence hall except for private rooms are considered public areas. When the door of a private room is propped open, it is to be considered a public area.
6. No student under the age of 21 may be present where possession or consumption of

Students may choose to utilize any or all options.

Preserve all physical evidence carefully. Do not bathe, douche, or change clothing. Try not to touch any objects that were handled by the attacker. During the medical examination, be sure to show the medical professional all cuts, bruises, scratches, or injuries. Medical treatment for the prevention of disease may be appropriate. Hospital personnel will also collect evidence for the police investigation.

Awareness programs specifically focus on awareness of sexual harassment and sexual assault; defining sexual harassment and assault; national statistics related to sexual assault; preventing, responding to, and reporting stalking, dating violence, domestic violence and any form of sexual harassment, including sexual assault.

Primary prevention programs are as follows:

1. Orientation programs designed for new students and employees to introduce them to university policies regarding Title IX, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and discrimination as well as a discussion of what constitutes sexual harassment and sexual assault. These orientation programs include information about policy, reporting, and how to report in person to the Title IX Coordinator or online. Victims and witnesses, who are impaired or are under-age drinkers, will not be penalized for reporting sexual misconduct.
2. Intentional, consistent, and scheduled programs and materials are provided to the university community. These involve varied creative messages and methods (fliers; door hangers; speakers; vignettes; articles; statistics; floor programs; campus wide programs; athletic team programs; club and organization programs). Articles are provided to students and families in separate monthly campus newsletters. Awareness programs are scheduled throughout the year.
3. The university provides student programs, such as "WALK" to address crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking; the definition of consent, relative to sexual behavior (clear yes NOT the absence of no); must be sober to provide consent; safe and positive options for bystander intervention; information on risk reduction; and information on the university's policies and procedures after a sex offense occurs. Students also discuss policies and preventive measures at floor meetings in each residential area. This information and responsibilities of employees as is provided to new employees at orientation.
4. Monthly education programs are provided as well as monthly articles in the faculty newsletter, In a Glance and the student newsletter Knightly News.
5. The Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator meets with department/schools, student organizations, faculty assembly, and athletic teams to review policies and procedures relative to sexual harassment, sexual violence, and mandatory reporting.

including questions and clarification.

In cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, a Title IX investigation will proceed. Investigations will typically be completed within 60 days; interim measures may be enacted, as needed, for the safety of the community. An investigator, note taker, and advocate(s) for complainant and respondent will be assigned upon receiving a report of alleged misconduct.
